

SANGHVI
SANGHVI MOVERS LIMITED

Our Cardinal Rules of Safety

We, at Sanghvi Movers Limited, are committed to improving Environment, Health and Safety performances and practices

The following are the safety rules of the company

- Personal protective equipments must be used at site
- All equipments must be checked before use
- All equipments and other allied lifting tools and tackles shall be tested by competent person
- Site employees must be trained in safety
- Site risk assessment must be done before work startup
- All near misses and incident must be reported on time
- All employees must be medically fit
- Valid safe work permit is required while working at site
- Only trained operators shall be authorized for crane operation
- All cranes must be used as per the design load chart
- Site activities must be monitored by competent supervisor
- All site employees must be trained in emergency management
- Storage of materials at site must be safe for handling